

Trinity, Tex. Jan. 26 1937

Messrs. Crow & Chessher,
Attorneys,
Groveton, Texas.
Attention Mr. C.C. Chessher:

Dear Sir:

Referring to our conversation of yesterday, in regard to my accepting land in lieu of money, in payment of the note the Reinhardt estate owes me, will advise that I have talked this matter over with my wife, and she says she is agreeable to my accepting such a settlement, providing old Will and Julius don't try to HOG me, and her out of a lot more than they have already done. Therefore she insists that she wants all the land that she is entitled to, and is not willing to accept the piece north of the public road in full for her share, unless it should survey the proper number of acres. If not she wants enough acreage on the south side of the road to make up her share, and I would like to have my acreage joining hers.

If they will not let me have acreage joining Fred's, then I want my part all on the south side, along the railroad.

I want to further call your attention to the fact that \$20.00 per acre is a very high price for any of this land, and therefore I am not willing to accept just 12 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres for the face value of the note, but must insist that the interest be taken into consideration also, and the acreage increased to cover the accrued interest, otherwise I will be giving them double pay for the land, but will be giving them all the interest on the note, in addition to all the money they have BEAT me out of, which, with accrued interest would be several times what the entire Reinhardt farm is worth.

As you can tell from the letters and notes I turned over to you, I am always willing, and anxious to meet anyone FAR more than halfway, but when they show that they are just out on the Deadbeat, and are not willing to do even half right, I certainly am reluctant to just let them swindle me out of still more, and then laugh at me for letting them get away with it.

Therefore I will again ask that you pin down on them as hard as you can, hold out for every foot you can possibly get, for even the best settlement will still leave me holding the bag for several Thousand dollars, all because I thought I was dealing with honest people.

Thanking you in advance for doing your best, and hoping that you will be very successful in your efforts I am -

Yours very truly

PS Be sure and make Charlie come accross with his part of the Cost, for if it was not for his sake, I would insist on sale of the place for the debt.

EWS

