

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF TRINITY

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for Trinity, County, Texas, on this day personally appeared E.W. SPLETTSTOESSER, known to me to be a creditable person, and who, after being by me sworn on oath, deposes and says:

THAT I am a son of Mrs. Minna Splettstoesser and Fritz Splettstoesser. That the said Minna and Fritz Splettstoesser were married in the City of Quedlingburgh, Germany, in the year 1887. That they were married but one time and that time to each other. My father, Fritz Splettstoesser, died in September, 1915, intestate, and my mother, Mrs. Minna Splettstoesser, died in January 1924, intestate. Neither the said Minna Splettstoesser nor Fritz Splettstoesser ever adopted any children.

At my mother's death, my brothers and sisters all got together and we decided among us that we would take the properties on hand and rather than dissipate the cash on hand by taking the estate through the court and settling it in that manner that your affiant, E.W. Splettstoesser, would have full control to manage, collect rents, pay taxes, lease or otherwise transact any business that had to do with any of my mother's possessions at her death. In support of the above, a power of attorney, signed by your affiant herein and all of the heirs, is attached.

The said Fritz and Minna Splettstoesser had ten children as a result of their marriage. Two of these children died in infancy. One was a boy who died when he reached the age of one year; the other was a girl who died before she reached the age of two years. There are now living eight and only eight children, who are the daughters and sons of the said Fritz and Minna Splettstoesser:

E.W. Splettstoesser, a son, whose wife is Frederica, and who lives in Trinity, Texas;

Fritz Splettstoesser, Jr., a single man, who now lives in Corrigan, Texas; at her death. In support of the above, a power of attorney, signed by your affiant herein and all of the heirs, is attached.

Minnie Splettstoesser, a daughter, who first married a man named Aydelotte, the said Aydelotte died before my mother died, and Minnie then married a man named Marvin King and they now reside on Byrne Street in Houston, Texas.

Walter Splettstoesser, who married Annie Kennedy, and they now reside at Corrigan, Texas;

Annie Splettstoesser, a daughter, who married a man named Barringer, and they now live in Moscow, Texas;

Roy Splettstoesser, a son, who married Maud Faulkner and now live in Corrigan, Texas;

Melvin Splettstoesser, a son. Melvin first married Maud Lunsford, who predeceased my mother, and then he married Jimmie Norman and they now live at Corrigan, Texas.

Bessie Splettstoesser, a daughter, who married a man named John L. Gammel, and they now live at 1013 West 5th Street, Austin, Texas.

The above are all of the children ever born to my beloved mother and father, Minna and Fritz Splettstoesser.

Of the above affiant has personal knowledge.
